

MAE POWELL
Inal Carelessness

Till Kidnap Trial Starts Next Monday

MONEY, Miss.—The kidnaping trial of two white men acquitted in September of the murder of Mississippi lynch victim Emmett Louis Till is scheduled to start Monday.

On trial will be Roy Bryant and his half-brother, J. W. Milam. Young Till, 14-year-old Chicagoan visiting a great uncle on a nearby farm, was killed after he allegedly wolf-whistled at Bryant's attractive 21-year-old wife, Carolyn.

Sheriff George Smith of LeFlore County has said Bryant and Milam have admitted abducting the lad from the home of Mose Wright. Smith said the pair related they released Till unharmed after it was determined that he was not the one who insulted Mrs. Bryant.

Till was taken from Wright's home on the morning of August 28. His mutilated body was found adrift in the Tallahatchie River three days later.

said:

"I'd say it was the building code of the occupancy.

Mrs. Powell, 29, G. Phillips Hospital arrested on room violation following was represented at Attorney Raymond former first assistant.

Mrs. Dawson, w at 4027 North M said she left the ch to pick up her child, Brenda, 5, Branch School. She gone only 10 min she was returning a child informed b

Mrs. Dawson, w the quarters three the fatal fire, said monthly rent for and a kitchen b basement of the b

At the inquest, small fire in her q after she moved in called to the house of code violations them.

Lone Love, 1820 testified at the in weeks ago he repl Mrs. Dawson after causing the lights ment to go out.

The fire marsh investigation disclos owner was using fuses and one 10-a said the 30-ampere strong for the kin the house.